From the Editor-

Hello Everybody!

Hi everyone, we had an awesome Boy's Flight #12 in February. 14 butterflies came from that flight. Thank-you community for all of your help.

The question for the last Chrysalis quiz was "Who keeps a record of all of the share groups in our Chrysalis community?" The answer was either the good shepherd or Sue Wannemacher. Are you in a share group? If not, then let Sue know. She can find one for you to join. She can be reached at wanneuc@sylvania.sev.org

Did you notice the URL just above this article? On the Internet it will take you to the Northwest Ohio Chrysalis website. It is very up-to-date. A big thanks goes to Lana Shryock for making that happen.

"Since my flight, I have been actively involved in the Chrysalis community, and it has become an important part of my life. Working as a board member and just as a volunteer during flights, I have greatly enjoyed both the community itself and the satisfaction brought by serving our Lord and the bugs. And it would certainly be my pleasure to continue to do so."

Angie Lamantia - NWO Chrysalis Girl's Flight #11, Table of peanut butter and Band-Aids.

Angie has 2 older brothers, Sal and Nick, a younger sister, Maggie and a cat, Susie. She is a junior at Bryan H.S. and works as a Subway sandwich artist and lifeguard.

"Chrysalis changed my life and I want to help my friends experience it too. I hope that serving on the board allows me to be even more involved and better able to help make that happen".

Jay Manning – NWO Chrysalis Boy's Flight # 9, Table of Daytime Dreamers

Jay is the son of Gary & Joann and has one Brother. He is a junior at Bowling Green H.S. and attends Trinity UMC in Bowling Green. Jay likes to sing and play the drums.

Ivy works full-time at Custom Deco as a customer service rep. She attends Clearview church and also teaches Sunday school there. Ivy has remained very involved with chrysalis since her flight, along with her twin sister, Sadie, and her mom.

She is "looking for a chance to be even more involved in helping make a difference" by serving on the board.

She has served on the NWO Chrysalis (where she just made the cut to give the Single Talk ... by a month!) She has also been an Adult Counselor for Summer Games youth camp at Widewater.

"I really enjoy the Chrysalis experience. I love the kids. They blow me away with their growth and confidence in their faith. I like to see it happen on a weekend and be involved in it! I think that being on the board would also be a good way to get rooted in this Emmaus/Chrysalis community."

Terry Johnson - greater Findlay Women's Walk #5, Table of Elizabeth.

Terry is the wife of Terry (really!), has 2 daughters, Jessica and Nicole and a "pseudo-son" Gabriele, an exchange student from Italy. Terry lives in Wauseon, works at the Fulton Co. Health Center in nursing informatics, and is a self-proclaimed computer geek! She attends New Hope Community Church in Bryan.

Terry would like to serve on the Chrysalis board because she's "being told god has more for her to be involved with than bible study and the small things at church. I need to get over the fact that I am not a baby Christian anymore and get more involved".

Jim Jackson – NWO Men’s walk #15, Table of Peter

Jim is married to Kris and has three children: Erin Brian and Amy. Jim works for the City of Toledo Forestry Dept. and attends Calvary UMC in Toledo. His hobbies are biking and hockey.

Carma Rittichier – NWO Women’s Walk #6. Table of Priscilla

Carma is married to handsome Ron and has 4 lovely daughters. She is an Edgerton Local School Nurse and attends Celebrate Life Christian Fellowship.

“Chrysalis gives teens an opportunity to grow closer to Christ. That’s something I want to be involved with.”

Brenda Short – NWO Women’s Walk #28, Table of Sarah

Brenda is the wife of Rod Short and the mother of Ashley, Clarissa, and Arrin. She is a Dental Assistant in Wauseon and lives outside of Fayette. She is a member of Central Mennonite Church where she has been a leader of the youth group, been on several church committees, is active in the Friends of the Father Sunday School class, and a Sunday school teacher.
